

MY SWEETHEART

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

EDWARD L. SULLIVAN

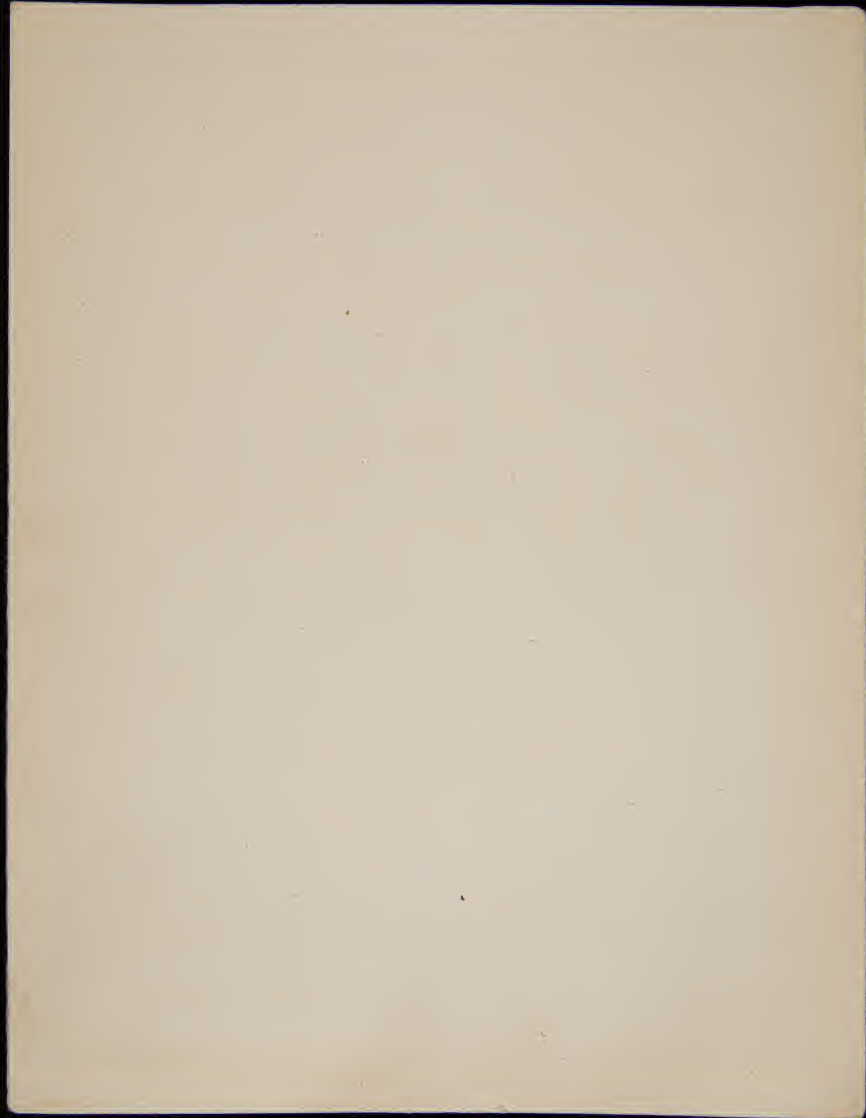

(U.S.N.R.F.)

—ARRANGED BY—

Lawrence B. O'Connor

PRICE 30 CENTS

PUBLISHED BY THE MASCO PUB. CO.
100 BOYLSTON ST.,
BOSTON — MASS.

My Sweetheart K. of C.

3

Arranged by
LAWRENCE B. O'CONNOR
Tempo di Marcia

Words and Music by
EDWARD L. SULLIVAN

PIANO f

1. When sol - dier Jim in per - feet trim ar - rived from o - ver sea — His
2. Sal - va - tion Nell and Red Cross girls did sure - ly make a hit With the

mf

Pa and Ma and sweet-heart were as hap - py as could be — That he
"Bud - dies" and the "Dough Boys" there we glad - ly do ad - mit — And missed his dear old par - ents care, Of that there was no doubt — How he oth - ers too were kind and true, To help us in the fight — For — lived with out his sweet-heart— was the pro-blem to work out. ——— Now Free-dom and De-moc-ra-cy to— make the world a' right ——— Yet when sol-dier Jim right up and says, "Come lis-ten here to me Just ev-'ry thing is said and done, All Vet-erans do a-gree That the thank the Lord I found you all, In the good old "K. of C." ——— war would be what Sher-man said, With-out the "K. of C." ———

CHORUS

K. of C. ——— you were a fa-ther to me, K. of C. ——— was what my moth-er would be, How can I ev-er for- get you You always cheer'd me

so. Brave men who an-swered their coun - try's call

Read - y and will - ing to give up all, A guard - i - an an - gel on land and sea, You were ev-en my sweet heart K. of C. K. of C.

The Song Hit Of 1920!

It Thrills - It Exhilarates and Haunts You

THRILLS

By ROBT J. MORRIS Writer of "Calling" etc.

CHORUS

Thrills that we will al-ways re-mem-ber Like gold-en dreams they come a-new Thrills of love to wives and to sweet-hearts Thrills and joys to girls and boys so true

— And there are Thrills while wedding bells are ring-ing Their

Chimes

largo

Copyright 1920 by Robert J. Morris